

TYLER WINSTEAD,

Plaintiff,

v.

ANDREW SAUL,¹ Acting
Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

shall be brought in the district court of the United States for the judicial district in which the plaintiff resides, or has his principal place of business, or, if he does not reside or have his principal place of business within any such judicial district, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

1

42 U.S.C. § 405(g). Plaintiff indicated that he resides in the city of Concord and the county of Cabarrus. (Doc. No. 1). Cabarrus County is one of the counties in the Middle District of North Carolina. Therefore, venue is not proper in the Western District of North Carolina. “The district court of a district in which is filed a case laying venue in the wrong division or district shall dismiss, or if it be in the interest of justice, transfer such case to any district or division in which it could have been brought.” 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

Upon consideration of Defendant’s Motion to Transfer Venue, (Doc. No. 7), the Motion is GRANTED, and the Court hereby transfers this case to the Middle District of North Carolina and strikes this case from the docket of the Western District of North Carolina.

SO ORDERED.
